MiFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / RETAIL INVESTORS, PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS AND ECPS TARGET MARKET – Solely for the purposes of the manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes taking into account the five categories referred to in item 18 of the Guidelines published by European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") on 5 February 2018 has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Note is eligible counterparties, professional clients and retail clients, each as defined in Directive 2014/65/EU, as amended ("MiFID II"); and (ii) all channels for distribution; and (iii) the following channels for distribution of the Notes to retail clients are appropriate – investment advice, portfolio management, non-advised sales and pure execution services, subject to the distributor's suitability and appropriateness obligations under MiFID II, as applicable. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration the manufacturer's target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Note (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer's target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

ANNEX – ISSUE SPECIFIC SUMMARY

The Notes, whose Aggregate Nominal Amount is between € 30,000,000.00 and € 50,000,000.00, are issued on 21 November 2018 and mature on 28 November 2024.

The Notes are indexed to the performance of the EURO STOXX 50® price index.

They have an Automatic Early Redemption mechanism, which can be activated at any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, annually from the first year to the fifth year.

If, at any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, the Index Performance is above the Automatic Early Redemption Level then an Automatic Early Redemption Event occurs and the Notes are redeemed in full at the Automatic Early Redemption Date at the following value:
Specified Denomination $\times (1 + 5,40\% \text{ per year})$, i being the number of years elapsed.

If, on all Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Dates, the index is below the Automatic Early Redemption Level, no Automatic Early Redemption Event is deemed to have occurred and the Notes are repaid on the Maturity Date. In this case, if on the Final Valuation Date the value of the Index is greater than or equal to 100% of its initial level, then each Note is redeemed at (100 % + the performance of the Index between the Issue Date and the Final Valuation Date) of the Specified Denomination. If on the Final Valuation Date, the value of the Index is strictly lower than 100% but higher or equal to 60% of its initial level, then each Note is redeemed at 100% of the Specified Denomination. Otherwise, if on the Final Valuation Date, the value of the Index is strictly lower than 60% of its initial level, then each Note is redeemed at the following value: Specified Denomination multiplied by (100 % + the performance of the Index between the Issue Date and the Final Valuation Date). In this particular hypothesis, as the performance of the Index is negative, there is a capital loss
